PRESIDENT TRUMP BACKS CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM FOLLOWING FOP ENDORSEMENT

Chuck Canterbury, National President of the Fraternal Order of Police, joined President Donald J. Trump today at the White House when he announced his Administration's support for legislation which makes important reforms to our nation's criminal justice system.

"We are proud to stand with President Trump on this issue. Because of our engagement, the new and revised version 'First Step Act' ensures that truly dangerous offenders, like those who commit crimes while armed and those who traffic in deadly narcotics like fentanyl, are ineligible for any early release programs," Canterbury said.

President Trump thanked the FOP and National President Chuck Canterbury, who stood at his side when he announced his support for the bill at a press event this afternoon. You can watch the event here: President Trump delivers remarks on criminal justice reform bill

The Fraternal Order of Police is the largest law enforcement labor organization in the United States with more than 345,000 members.
