NFOP APPLAUDS DISMISSAL OF CHARGES AGAINST BALTIMORE OFFICERS AND CALLS FOR STATE ATTORNEY MOSBY'S DAY IN COURT

Chuck Canterbury, National President of the Fraternal Order of Police, expressed satisfaction and relief that the witch hunt against the Baltimore officers by State Attorney Marilyn Mosby has officially ended with all charges dropped for the remaining officers.

Canterbury said, "We have said time and time again from the onset of this witch hunt that these officers were wrongly charged with absolutely false claims. Today has vindicated and proven that these officers did everything by the book and that there was a gross miscarriage of the law by State Attorney Mosby."

"It is terrible that in our country today that law enforcement officers doing their job the right way can still be falsely accused of misconduct and have their lives potentially ruined, even though facts were there from the very beginning that no misconduct occurred." Canterbury continued, "It is now time for State Attorney Mosby to face her days in court for malicious suits, abuse of process, and malfeasance in office. Some of these matters will be resolved in civil courts, by the bar association, and also criminal court. The men and women of the Baltimore Police Department and officers around the country know how to uphold the law unlike Mosby who answers to public pressure rather than actual facts of investigations."

The men and women of law enforcement around this country will continue to stand up and protect the people of our great country no matter what. They will continue to do this even though members of the media and our elected officials continue to stay silent and ignore the facts.

The Fraternal Order of Police is the largest law enforcement labor organization in the United States, with more than 330,000 members.
